Course Code GradDipTh: 054700C; GradDipMin: 054696E

Graduate Diploma of Theology

A one year program (max 4 years part-time) which aims to provide graduates in theology, including those who are practitioners in ministry, the opportunity to undertake study at coursework masters level, thus consolidating and enhancing the areas of specialty.

Participants in this program may also choose to move into new areas of professional and vocational expertise and build on their first degree in theology.

Prerequisites Admission applications will be considered from applicants who hold the Australian College of Theology's (ACT) Bachelor of Ministry or Bachelor of Theology - or have completed studies that are deemed by the ACT to be equivalent to these awards.

Units Each unit within this award is one semester in duration and worth 8 credit points - a normal full-time load for this course being 2 units/semester.

- Biblical Studies and/or Christian Thought (2 Units)
- Electives (2 Units)

Graduate Diploma of Ministry

This one year program (max 4 years part-time) is aimed at broadening and deepening the ministry concepts begun in the first degree in theology or providing opportunities for initial professional and vocational development after the completion of a first degree in theology. As such it is a course of study for practitioners who already have some ongoing professional experience or for initial professional development.

Prerequisites As per the Graduate Diploma of Theology described above.

Units Each unit within this award is one semester in duration and worth 8 credit points - a normal full-time load for this course being 2 units/semester.

- Ministry and Practice (2 Units)
- Electives (2 Units)
